ORDER APPROVING RESOLUTION OF PRO SE PLAINTIFF
BRANDON ALLEN'S FLSA AND STATE LAW CLAIMS (ECF NO. 551)

Plaintiff Brandon Allen (“Plaintiff”) brings this action against Defendants alleging violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”), 29 U.S.C. § 201, and various state law claims. Plaintiff and Defendants (together “the Parties”) now jointly seek an order granting their Joint Motion to Approve Settlement Agreement and Incorporated Memorandum in Support of Joint Motion for Claims of Plaintiff Brandon Allen, Pro Se. (ECF No. 551) In addition to the Joint Motion, Plaintiff has also submitted a Rule 72 Declaration setting forth Plaintiff’s reasons for settling Plaintiff’s claims and stating Plaintiff’s opinion that the settlement amount is fair and reasonable. (ECF No. 551-3) (Exhibit Three) (Declaration of Brandon Allen). For the following reasons, the Court GRANTS the Motion.

A district court must scrutinize a proposed FLSA settlement for fairness and determine whether it is a “fair and reasonable resolution of a ... [good faith] ... dispute over FLSA provisions.” Lynn’s Food Stores, Inc. v. United States ex rel. U.S. Dep’t of Labor, 679 F.2d 1350, 1355 (11th Cir. 1982); Nutting v. Unilever Mfg. (U.S.) Inc., No. 2:14-cv-02239, 2014 WL

2959481, at *3 (W.D. Tenn. June 13, 2014). In this analysis, the Court examines three factors: (1) whether the settlement was achieved in an adversarial context, (2) whether the plaintiffs were protected by attorneys who can protect their rights and (3) whether the settlement reflects a fair and reasonable compromise of the issues in dispute. Lynn's Food Stores, 679 F.2d at 1354.

Based on a review of the Parties' submissions in this case, the Court finds that the proposed Settlement Agreement is a fair and reasonable settlement of a good-faith FLSA dispute for back pay, comp time, overtime pay and all accompanying state law claims for unpaid wages. Plaintiff had counsel representation until November 14, 2024. See ECF No. 522. Plaintiff, as an individual plaintiff, decided that he desired to settle his claims and not proceed to trial. Exhibit Three, Decl. of Brandon Allen (ECF No. 551-3). After seeing his settlement number in the local newspaper, Plaintiff met with a non-attorney representatives of Defendants to settle his individual claims. Id. The amount of the settlement is a reasonable and fair compromise of the damages sought by Plaintiff as set forth in his former counsel's Plaintiff's Supplemental FRCP 26 Supplemental Disclosures (ECF No. 368) and Defendants' expert witness estimate of Plaintiff's damages (ECF No. 551-2) (Exhibit Two). Plaintiff and Hardeman County's non-attorney representative completed his settlement for $49,225.48. Exhibit Three, Declaration of Brandon Allen (ECF No. 551-3). Hardeman County paid Plaintiff the $49,225.48 settlement by checks dated October 25, 2024. Id. Both Plaintiff and Defendants have had representation by experienced labor and employment counsel. The agreed-upon resolution represents a fair and reasonable settlement of the FLSA claims of Plaintiff given the significant factual disputes in the case and the uncertainty associated with proceeding to trial.

For the foregoing reasons, the Court GRANTS the Joint Motion and accordingly, the Plaintiff's claims against Defendants for alleged unpaid accrued leave hours are DISMISSED

WITHOUT PREJUDICE and plaintiff's FLSA claims are hereby DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.

IT IS SO ORDERED, this 27th day of May, 2025.
